Student Page Position

The Amagansett Library accepts applications on an ongoing basis for part-time student page position(s). Pages are responsible for keeping the Library neat and ensuring that all materials can be found in their correct locations. They are called upon to assist the librarians and clerical staff with ongoing projects. Candidates must be able to lift 25 pounds and put away books on high and low shelves. Successful candidates will be efficient, flexible, resourceful, and solution-oriented. Comfort with technology is required.

This is a seasonal summer position and requires weekends. Candidates younger than 18 will be required to present working papers.

Interested candidates can fill out the Library's Standard Application and/or send a resume listing their skills, interests and contact information to Arielle Hessler at director@amagansettlibrary.org. Please indicate interest in the Student Page position on the application or resume.

Applications will be accepted on an ongoing basis and held until a position opens. Candidates will only be contacted if chosen for an interview.

The Amagansett Free Library is an at-will, equal opportunity employer. The Library does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations. We are committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our staff and the public.
