

Policy Against Workplace Harassment

The Amagansett Free Library has a strict policy against all types of workplace harassment, including sexual harassment and other forms of workplace harassment based upon an individual's age (40 and over), race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, pregnancy (including childbirth, lactation, and related medical conditions), physical or mental disability, genetic information (including testing and characteristics), veteran status, uniformed service member status, or any other status protected by federal, state, or local laws. All forms of harassment of, or by, employees, vendors, visitors, customers, and clients are strictly prohibited and will not be tolerated.

Sexual Harassment

Please refer to the Library's Policy Against Sexual Harassment.

Workplace Harassment

Workplace harassment is verbal or physical conduct that insults or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of the individual's age (40 and over), race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, pregnancy (including childbirth, lactation, and related medical conditions), physical or mental disability, genetic information (including testing and characteristics), veteran status, uniformed service member status, or any other status protected by federal, state, or local laws.

Again, while it is not possible to list all the circumstances that may constitute forms of workplace harassment, the following are some examples of conduct that may constitute workplace harassment:

- The use of disparaging or abusive words or phrases, slurs, negative stereotyping, or threatening, intimidating, or hostile acts that relate to the above-protected categories;
- Written or graphic material that insults, stereotypes, or shows aversion or hostility toward an individual or group because of one of the above-protected categories and that is placed on walls, bulletin boards, email, voicemail, or elsewhere on our premises, or circulated in the workplace; and
- A display of symbols, slogans, or items that are associated with hate or intolerance toward any select group.

Reporting Discrimination and Harassment

If you feel that you have witnessed or have been subjected to any form of discrimination or harassment, you must immediately notify your supervisor or the Library Director.

The Amagansett Free Library prohibits retaliation against employees who, based on a reasonable belief, provide information about, complain of, or assist in the investigation of any complaint of harassment or discrimination.

Amagansett Free Library

The Library will promptly and thoroughly investigate any claim and take appropriate action where it is determined that a claim has merit. Discipline for violation of this policy may include but is not limited to, reprimand, suspension, demotion, transfer, and discharge. If the Library determines that harassment or discrimination occurred, corrective action will be taken to effectively end the harassment. As necessary, the Library may monitor any incident of harassment or discrimination to assure the inappropriate behavior has stopped. In all cases, the Library will follow up as necessary to ensure that no individual is retaliated against for making a complaint or cooperating with an investigation.
